New Faces at Courthouse Security Station

There will be new faces at the front security station that do not know or recognize the employees that come into the courthouse. It is imperative that you have your employee id available.

You will be getting asked for your ID as these guys do not know who is a civilian and who is an employee.